MINISTER'S LOG

At the beginning of the winter session I would ask you all to rally once again to the work of the Church. I know that there is something far greater than this namely our faith in and discipleship of Jesus Christ. At the same time the Church has a special function to play in the world. It exists that men may hear the word of God especially through the teaching of the Old and New Testaments, enshrining as they do the life of Christ. We can listen to the voice of God at any time or place in life, but there is centrality and potency in it when it comes through the Person of the Christ who was made flesh, who died on the Cross of Calvary and rose triumphantly o'er the grave. In these days when there are so many voices in the world, it is of supreme value to listen to the word of God. That is why we invite you to come to Church. There may be other blessings in it such as that of fellowship, thanksgiving, confessions, etc., but the words of Jesus ring in our ears, "He that hath ears to hear, let him hear."

Secondly we call you to take your place in the Church in order that you may serve Him within it. The Christian Gospel is a message that sends you out to do something. If it does not issue in action it indeed must be suspect. Whether you can find within the ecclesia such a service I do not know. We need those who can teach in the Sabbath School. Perhaps you feel you have no ability to do this. If you can train your children in the home I do not see how this should be impossible. Again there is the Choir. Some of you have the gift of song and it could be used, indeed it ought to be. There are a great many older folk in the community including the Church, could you not adopt one, and take an interest in him or her? If every one does a little it lightens the burden tremendously. Let there be an emphasis on action for in no other way can we really follow in the footsteps of Christ.

The Kirk Sessions of Mearns Kirk, Broom and ourselves, are to hold three conferences on the 2nd Sunday evening of September, October and November at 6.30 p.m. The first two will be on the subject of Church Unity, and the third on the Church in Industry. The opening one will be in the Broom Church on September 11th. The congregations will be welcome at the initial service after which there will be a group discussion among the elders. The speaker will be the Dean of St. Margaret's Episcopal Church, Newlands.

OBITUARIES

Mrs McConnell, died on Saturday, 11th June at a hospital in Paisley. She had been resident in Eastwoodhill for a year or two, after living with Mr and Mrs William Dinsmor, at their home in Castle Road. Her mother had shown great kindness to Mrs Dinsmor's mother when she was left an orphan, and Mrs Dinsmor felt an obligation to look after her in her latter years. Mrs McConnell and her husband lived for some years on the island of Arran and he opened an optician and chemist practise in Lamash where her husband died. She stayed in Brodick before coming back to the mainland.

She took a great interest in our Church and was a very interesting conversationalist. Mr and Mrs Dinsmor were very attentive to her and made her closing years very pleasant for her. We would like to thank also Mrs Pinkerton, the Matron of Eastwoodhill for her watchful care over her.

Mrs Mather, formerly of Windyhaugh, Roddinghead Road, Whitecraigs died in a nursing home, Langside on 15th June, 1966. For the past few years she had been in residence in the St. John's Foundation Home, Langside. We say farewell in her, to one of the oldest members of the congregation as well as one of the personalities in it. She came to live, when she was quite young, with her aunts, the Misses Birrell, at Springbank, Ayr Road. She married comparatively late in life and her husband's family had been associated for long with the congregation. He was an elder in it, and the position of preses of the Managers' Court. He always maintained that the finest committee was composed of two, one of whom was absent. The Mather family lived in Kirkhill (now the home of the Thomson Television Foundation) and drove each Sunday to Church in a carriage and pair. Those were the days when Mearns was a village, and links with the surrounding ones of Barrhead, Thornliebank and Eaglesham were much stronger than with Glasgow. Mrs Mather, like her husband, was a woman of strong personality. None of us who were privileged last September to be present at the robing of the Minister, will forget how she unconsciously dominated the whole proceedings with her presence and her interjections. It was a great joy to her to perform the act for, as she said, so many of her forbears had officiated in the same capacity. She was most entertaining company, almost outspoken at times, and yet with it all there was a charm and a bubbling humour that was most exhilarating. She always kept reminding me that she had known me as a child and that she had played in the same orchestra as my Mother and Aunts. I think I was the 9th minister in Newton Mearns she had sat under, although I know I spoiled the number increasing! She and her husband both loved the "Nitton" Kirk and laboured long and faithfully for it. I personally grew more and more attached to her as the years passed. It was a great joy to me that one or two families in the Church were so good to her in her declining years, bringing her to the services, and inviting her to their Christmas Dinners. To her relatives, far and wide, who kept in diligent touch with her, we extend our deepest sympathy in her passing.

Mrs Allan, late of Woodneuk, Firwood Road, died in a nursing home on 5th August, 1966. This was a brave woman. She was left a widow with 6 children when she was very young. Certainly she was helped by her two brothers, Dr. Paul, who built the Children's Home for tuberculous at Millport, and the other who erected some houses in this district. They gave her the life rental of a bungalow in Newton Mearns. At the same time she must have had to struggle to educate them for those were the days when grants were not forthcoming. They have grown up and all made successful careers for themselves and it must have been a great joy to her to look back on the difficulties that had been overcome. It left its toll however, on her health, and for quite a few years she was confined mainly to the house. She was a very interesting conversationalist, and alive to all that was going on in the Church and district. To her family we extend our deepest sympathy in the death of their beloved Mother. Two of them are members of the Church—Mr and Mrs James Rodger of Arisdale Crescent, and Mr and Mrs Howard of Barrhead Road.

Mr Roy M. Anderson, 108 Beech Avenue, died in a city hospital on Friday, 24th June, 1966. There is something very poignant when a father of a young family is taken away in the prime of life. Just at a time when he is needed in so many ways they do not have his support and guidance. He had an attack of influenza about the New Year and he never seemed to get back his strength. It was, however, towards the end of April, that he became seriously ill. For two months he fought with great determination but it was not so to be, and he died peacefully in his sleep after his mid-day meal. He became a partner in the business of hatters founded by the late Mr William Grant, many years ago. He had to travel each week to London, and there is no doubt that this made serious inroads on his health. His family was his other great interest in life, and he spared no pains to do all he could to bring happiness into their life. Those who knew him said that he was most considerate in all his ways. He came from a family that has its roots quite deep in the life of our congregation. His mother was a woman of the finest Christian character, his brother and sister-in-law are with us, and his aunt and uncle, Mr and Mrs Potts. On his wife's side we have Mrs Grant, his mother-in-law, and Mr and Mrs McKinnon, and Mr and Mrs West, the former brother-in-law, an elder of the Church. They are a closely knit family, and have already rallied round and will continue to do so. To his widow, his son and his daughter, we offer the deepest sympathy of the congregation.

Mrs Weir, Ancroft, Hazelwood Avenue, died on Saturday, 25th June, 1966. Her passing brings back happy memories of when she and her husband retired from business in mining engineering and accessories of it in India, and came to live in Newton Mearns in the early thirties. They bought a house "The Croft" right opposite the manse, and we saw a good deal of the family. Alec had left home to go out east, but Jean was still about the house. She later married Mr George Hunter and they now live in Burnside Road, Whitecraigs. As they have two daughters and Mrs Hunter has a daughter married with a family, Mrs Weir was a great Grandmother. We used to first foot them at the New Year and carry a piece of coal over the threshold. She was very interested in all that went on in the district and in the Church, and was a very excellent conversationalist. Bridge was one of her recreations and it was only her increasing blindness that brought this to an end. No one could know her without becoming very fond of her, and I had the privilege of being numbered among them. We feel a chapter in the book has come to a close with her death, and we offer to her son and daughter, and all her kith and kin our deepest sympathy.

Mr Gibb McKinlay, 6 Beech Avenue, died in his home on Friday, 8th July, 1966. He spent almost all his working days with Cadburys, the famous confectioners. Perhaps we knew his brother Peter better for it was not till later years that he and his wife joined our congregation. It did not take us long to realise, however, that this was a very fine type of man. He was gentle in his manner and at the same time strong in personality. David says in one of the Psalms, "Thy gentleness, O God, hath made me great." It was so with him. He was most considerate of people. He would never do anything to infringe on the rights of the person of another. But that did not mean that he could not be inflexible when he saw what was the right thing to do. His wife has been a member of the Townswoman's Guild and has made many friends in the district. He, himself was of a more retiring disposition and loved above all his garden. The illness that smote him was protracted and full of discomfort yet through it all he bore it with wonderful patience. To his widow and daughter we offer to-day our deep sympathy in the great loss that has befallen them.

Mr John Henderson, C.B.E., M.C., B.Sc., A.R.T.C., M.I.E.E., 30 Craignethan Road, Whitecraigs, died at a city hospital on Friday, 19th August, 1966. We only had the privilege of knowing him and his wife when he came to retire to this neighbourhood. He was such a humble man that one did not at first realise the amount of work he had accomplished in life or the high quality of it. He rose to Chief Engineer of the South of Scotland Electricity Board and had under his supervision the construction of the Hunterston Atomic Electricity Generator on the Ayrshire coast. He gave a talk one evening to the Youth Fellowship upon it, and while he made it as simple as he could, we were all following afar off. It was only then that one realised the massive brain that was in him. The other side of the man was the deep religious convictions that he held. He knew the Bible as few men do to-day. One of his favourite subjects was his belief in the Virgin Birth. He had studied the two genealogies in Matthew and Luke, and maintained that a close scrutiny of them made it perfectly clear that the New Testament held firmly to the doctrine. We had seen him at a wedding in June in the Church and he had appeared in the best of health but shortly afterwards the illness appeared that brought about his death. In all his business, religious and social life, his wife has supported him in an exceptional way, and to her, her son, his daughter-in-law and his grandchildren, we offer to-day the deepest sympathy of the congregation. Mr Henderson was made a C.B.E. in 1959 and in 1918 won the Military Cross while serving in the Tank Corps.

Mr J. Allan Davidson, of Thornhill, Forrest field Crescent, died at his home on 22nd August, 1966. He had been in apparent good health until late Spring, when he suddenly became seriously ill. Mr and Mrs Davidson were both members of Newlands South, and sang in the choir. He had a very beautiful tenor voice. It was one of the finest one has ever been privileged to listen to. He was a member of the Orpheus Choir and took part each year in their renderings of the Gilbert and Sullivan operas. He was a partner in the firm of surgical instruments of Vicary and Davidson. As a man he was most obliging and nothing was too much trouble if you needed anything in life. Golf was his other interest in life, and here also he excelled being a member of Cowglen, and playing for many years in the team, and serving for a time as Captain of the Club. To his wife, his daughter, his son-in-law and his grandchildren we extend our deepest sympathy.

Mrs Garvie, Garvie House, Newton Mearns died on Thursday, 30th June, 1966, at her residence. She was the last of her generation, her surviving brother Mr Robert Carswell of Eaglesham having passed away last April. She belonged to a family whose history is written deep in that of the parish. Her husband, the late Alexander Garvie, had through business and personal contacts a close link with the agricultural life of Mearns. He was a leading figure at the Annual Cattle Show held in the Crookfur field. At such a time their home was crowded with visitors and Mrs Garvie was a very talented hostess, both in the table that she provided, and in the welcome she gave to her guests. The occasion was not an isolated one in this respect for she was always extending hospitality far and near. For the past few years she has been more or less confined to the house but even there she still remained the dominant and kindly personality that she has been all her days. To her daughter, Mrs Amos and her grandsons we extend the deepest sympathy of the congregation.

OFFICE-BEARERS

At the Board Meeting held on 8th June, the resignation of Mr A. S. McCance, as treasurer of the Systematic Giving Scheme, was intimated. The thanks of the congregation for all the work which he had so faithfully and efficiently carried out as Treasurer for twenty one years, were expressed by Mr Mackay and Mr Thom. In recognition of his services a presentation of a Transistor was made to him by Mr Mackay. Mr McCance conveyed his thanks to the members.

Mr Andrew M. McCance was appointed Treasurer of the Systematic Giving Scheme. He was thanked for all his work as Treasurer of the Co-ordinated Appeal Fund.

To succeed Mr A. M. McCance, Mr H. Muir Wilson is now Treasurer of the Co-ordinated Appeal Fund.

Mr Douglas J. MacPhail has undertaken the work of Registrar of the Systematic Giving Scheme, previously carried out by Mr Paul R. Wood.

Mr James Pollock is the new Seat Rents Treasurer in succession to the late Mr Stewart Telfer.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

The opening meeting of the Woman's Guild will be on Monday, 10th October at 7.30 p.m. when we shall meet old friends again and look forward to making new ones. We were all together last at our outing to Loch Lomond which was a very enjoyable evening, for which once again we are very grateful to our secretary, Miss Hammond, for making all the arrangements. Since then the committee have been busy thinking about the coming session, the result is a very interesting syllabus, some items being by special request of Guild members.

The opening meeting this year is a concert by the Deneholm Singers, and those who heard these talented people at the Guild a few years ago will know that we are off to a good start. To attend the Guild is an opportunity for the women of the Church to meet together in a friendly atmosphere and new members will be very welcome at our meetings on Mondays at 7.30 p.m.

D.A.C.

YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

At the Annual General Meeting held on the 24th April Miss Jane Clements became President for the year 1966-1967.

The new committee, then started to organise the Annual outing to Rothesay in May, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all those that came along in spite of the inclement weather conditions which prevailed during our stay on the Costa Clyde.

Throughout the summer we have been busy making up our syllabus, but owing to the often tardy replies, progress has been extremely slow.

However, our other Annual outing to the Edinburgh Festival is being held on the 2nd September and we are all looking forward to an enjoyable evening at the Tattoo and then the Late Night Show where Catherine Sauvage is appearing.

On Friday, 30th September, we are having a bowling night at the Hampden Bowls and we would like to extend a very warm welcome to anyone interested in joining the Youth Fellowship to come along that evening. To find out more about this, would the people interested please contact me.

The Youth Fellowship starts on 2nd October when our speaker is an Airline Pilot, and he will also be bringing a film along with him.

Our meetings are held in the Church hall and start at 7.45 p.m. Once again a warm welcome is extended to all those who are 16 years or older to join us in Sunday evenings this forthcoming winter.

Madaleine Shaw.
Secretary

2nd MEARNS GIRL GUIDE COMPANY

Since Easter, we have had a very active Guiding and outdoor session, which has included a Queen's Guide Presentation, a company week-end camp, prize-giving night, and finally a 12-day camp in Ireland.

The Queen's Guide of whom we are all so proud is P.L. Fionna Rait—she was presented with her certificate and Badge in May by the Assistant Division Commissioner, and all guides' parents joined us that evening to help Fionna to celebrate winning this award, and also to congratulate her on this fine success, the achievement of the highest Guide badge.

The 2nd Whitecraigs Coy. joined us in our Annual week-end camp at the May week-end. The weather could not have been more kind to us, and we all came home very suntanned and prepared for our adventures later in Ireland.

Prizes were presented by Mrs Gillies this year, and included the Best Recruit (Valerie McCance), the Best Guide (Elizabeth Stewart), the P.L.'s Cup (Jill Crossland), the Smartest Guide's Shield (Valerie Niven and Lynda Forbes), and the All-Round Excellence Trophy (Fionna Rait). Prizes were also awarded for Attendance and the Best Patrol.

We have just returned from 12 days in Antrim, Ulster having had reasonable weather for most of the time. We visited the Giant's Causeway, Belfast, and Lorne (Guide training centre) and were met with nothing but kindness and friendliness throughout our whole camp there. The Guides all played hard, and worked for a Patrol Challenge as well, and the general consensus of opinion by all 31 of us who went was to return again another year.

Guiding Session 1966-67 starts on the 1st September, and we meet on Thursday nights between 7.30 and 9.30 p.m. We shall be delighted to have recruits this year, and anyone between the ages of 10½ and 15½ will be welcome.

My sincere thanks go to Mr Mackay, and Messrs Robertson and Wilson for the attention and help paid and given to us during last season, and also Lieutenants S. Crossland, F. Gillies, M. McClure and S. Wylie for their unfailing loyalty and friendly companionship in everything we venture to do.

Jane C. Clements (Captain).

2nd MEARNS BROWNIE PACK

Another successful year was completed on 23rd June when the usual Prize Giving was held. Difficulty was found in deciding on the best recruit for the year as we had so many new Brownies all very keen and hard working. Attendance throughout the year was also very good but no Brownie had perfect attendance this year.

We were able to hold a few of our meetings outside when the weather was dry and we had nature and observation games.

The new session commences on Thursday, 15th September from 6.30 - 7.30 p.m. and all girls who are 7 years of age up to 11 years of age will be made welcome.

J. O Simpson, Brown Owl.

THE SPARKS

The first meeting of The Sparks for next session will be on Wednesday, 7th September, at 6.30 p.m. in the Church hall.

Any boys between the ages of 5 and 7 years inclusive will be made most welcome.

A. Crossland (Leader).

79th GLASGOW COMPANY THE BOYS' BRIGADE

We are now approaching a new session in the Boys' Brigade, one which will be as successful if not better than 1965/6 during which Cpl. L. Forbes gained the highest award possible "The Queen's Badge", and the publication of the Boy's own magazine "On Parade."

The new session will commence on Friday, 9th September when all our members and transfers from The Life Boys will be made most welcome. We would like to invite any boy between the ages of 12 and 17 to come along and join us on a Friday.

I would like to thank Mr T. Dobson for agreeing to continue as Leader in Charge of the Life Boys until a replacement is found and this is giving some difficulty.

I am also looking for a Pianist who would be prepared to come along on a Friday night and a Sunday morning.

The Pipe Band which we started last year is progressing very well and we hope to have it on the road sometime during this session.

A. Watt (Captain).

79th GLASGOW COMPANY THE LIFE BOYS

It is with a certain amount of sentiment that I write this report as it will be the last one to be headed "The Life Boys" as from 18th September the organisation will be known as "The Junior Brigade." The Hat band and metal badge are replaced by bands and badges with "The Boys' Brigade."

The new session will commence on Friday, 9th September, 1966 at 7.00 p.m. at which all members and boys between the ages of 8 and 11 will be made most welcome.

T. Dobson, Leader in Charge.

BADMINTON, SEASON 1966-67

Last year, as well as the ordinary club play, we ran two teams, one of which played in the Langside and District Churches League, the other in the East Kilbride League—matches are usually played on Wednesday evenings.

Play this year commences on the evening of Tuesday, 13th September, at 7.30 p.m., and is continued throughout the season on Tuesday evenings, and Saturday afternoons in the Church Hall. Anyone interested in playing will be most welcome, and should come along to any Club night, or contact one of the following committee members:

President and Secretary: Colin Atkinson—NEW 2970
Treasurer: Ian Wright—NEW 2758.

DATE OF PUBLICATION OF THE SUPPLEMENT

The next Supplement will be available for distribution on 13th November, 1966.

If you have any material that you think would be interesting to the congregation would you endeavour to have it in the hands of the Minister not later than 14 days before date of issue?
