MINISTER'S LOG

The Session has had under consideration the report of the Assembly Hymnary Committee submitted to the Presbytery. It gives a list of 335 hymns in the present book that it suggests should be omitted from the proposed new one. The Presbytery of Glasgow has drawn up a further list of those which it feels should not be omitted, and it invited members and elders to send in a report of those which should be added to their findings. Our Kirk Session has decided that each elder should do this and post it to the Session Clerk, and that in addition any member of the congregation be invited to do the same. A sheet with the Assembly Committee's omissions and the Presbytery's emendations will therefore be made available to you and you are asked to return it as soon as possible.

One's first reaction to the work of the Assembly's Hymnary Committee is that it has so far done a good piece of work. To omit 335 out of the present 728 hymns has shown great courage on its part. As most of these are never used, this is as it should be. In some cases the words may be beautiful but the tunes are of no value for congregational praise. The wonder is that these 335 were ever admitted.

On the other hand there are some hymns which have been used a great deal that are included in the list of omissions, and concern has been expressed that they have been deleted.

To quote a few:—By Cool Siloam (309); Rise up, O Men of God! (344); Take my life and let it be (512); He liveth long who liveth well (522) Away in a Manger (657). Naturally one has one's own favourites but hymns like 309 and 657 are greatly loved in the Church.

It should be said that the report is a little ambiguous about hymns for the children as to whether it intends to have them in a separate book. It says that the matter is under consideration.

The Assembly Report proposes to include 50 of the metrical Psalms. This some of us think is a good thing but the fear has been expressed that this might mean the end of the Scottish Psalter. Certainly there is a large portion of the latter not on the same high level and rarely if ever used, but what would happen to many of the old Psalm tunes? Yet we must remember that the proposed new hymnary is to be used by other Churches than the Church of Scotland and if they are left out they will not have the use of them. But as the new book is to have only 600 hymns, you can see the problem of the committee.

We should not look for the new book for another 4-5 years. A lot of work has yet to be done in the composition of it, and then there is the publication of it. There is therefore time to make your comments known, and we hope that you will play your part.

We would take this opportunity of congratulating the Youth Fellowship on the Service it conducted on the Sunday before Christmas. We have become accustomed to a high standard in years gone past, and it came not a whit behind. It would be invidious to mention individual items but we would thank the president, Miss Jane Clements, for her address given in her usual accomplished style. This is as far as I can remember the first time we have had a "woman" in this office but she must have convinced many that she was as equal to it as a man. The church at Christmas was decorated beautifully and to all who helped we would offer our thanks.

In the Queen's New Year's Honour List the O.B.E. was awarded to Mr R. E. Barclay, 19 Larchfield Avenue, surgeon at Mearnskirk Hospital. He has come to be recognised as one of the leading heart specialists, not only in this country, but throughout the world. He has visited Italy and India demonstrating the work that can now be done in this respect. To him and to all the members of his team at Mearnskirk Hospital we would offer our warmest congratulations.

Annual Reports

SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Sunday School departments meet in the places and at the times detailed below on Sunday morning.

Beginners and Primary—Large Hall, 11.20 a.m.
Juniors—Large Hall, 10.00 a.m.
Seniors—Session House, 10.00 a.m.
Bible Classes—The Vestry, 10.15 a.m.
Creche—Large Hall, 11.20 a.m.

Superintendent—Mr F.D. Leith, 22 Blackhouse Avenue, Newton Mearns.
Tel.: NEW 2596.

Secretary—Miss M. Dinsmor.

Treasurer—Mr R. Hodgins.

The picnic was held at Windhill Farm on the first Saturday in June and we are very grateful to our host Mr Basil Baird for his patience in organising so many conducted tours of the farm. His hospitality more than made up for the damp weather.

On the following Sunday morning, the prize-giving service was held in the Church at 10.00 a.m. and Mr Mackay addressed the children and presented the prizes.

For some considerable time, it had been felt that the accommodation available on Sunday mornings was far from adequate and when it was realised that over fifty children in the Primary Department were occupying the Upper Hall, it was decided to alter the times of attendance. Accordingly, with effect from 30th October, the commencement time for the Primary and Beginner's Department was altered to 11.20 a.m., thus giving the children in this department full use of the Large Hall.

A further advantage was gained by this change. The Boys' Brigade Bible Class can now use the Upper Hall thus allowing the Senior Sunday School to move back from Mearns School to the Session House.

The Christmas Parties were held on Saturday, 17th December and, apart from a slight delay when Santa appeared to be stuck in the chimney, were very successful. Once again we would like to express our thanks to Miss Carol Bishop who entertained the children in the Primary Department, and to all those who worked so hard as helpers at both parties.

There are now 64 children in the Primary Department; 58 in the Junior Department; and 12 in the Senior Department—a total of 134—and we would again extend our plea for more teachers, particularly for the Primary children, and especially for any who can play the piano.

In closing, may I take this opportunity to express our appreciation of all the interest shown and help given to us by Mr Mackay, our visiting elders and the Session as a whole, and Mr Dinsmor; also to give my personal thanks to all the teachers for their hard work, loyalty, and unfailing support.

F. D. Leith, Superintendent.

THE WOMAN'S GUILD

President—Mrs Walter Cuthill.

Vice-President—Mrs Munro.

Secretary—Miss A. C. Hammond.

Secretary-Elect—Mrs W. Blue.

Treasurer—Mrs A. M. R. Russell.

We began the first part of 1966 with a "Visit to New Zealand", by Miss Kerr. The evenings which followed included a talk by Rev. E. Johnson, the Pakistani minister in Glasgow, Children's Art, by Miss Jean Irwin, the Secrets of a Butcher's shop by Mr Hugh Brechin, a film, Report from Malawi, and informal evenings with programmes devised and provided by our own members.

We went to the theatre to see the Mikado in March, held a Daffodil Tea in April and went a Bus Run to Loch Lomondside in June.

The Autumn opened with a concert by the Denholm Singers whose interest lies in raising money for the Church of Scotland hostel for Epileptic Lads. Our collection that evening amounted to £10.

Since then most of our programme material has been provided by our own members. Mrs Sinclair compered the slides for a Holiday Symposium. We enjoyed our Hallowe'en Party which was followed the next week by a talk by Miss Osborne which she illustrated with pictures of her Holiday in Africa. Mrs Dinsmor arranged a musical evening and acted as our Disc Jockey.

In 1966, Mrs Thom, after serving us faithfully and well for three years, demitted office in favour of Mrs Cuthill who is now President.

The Guild has two objects in mind when organising our Coffee Mornings. We have to raise money to meet our commitments, but we also wish to provide an opportunity for friends to meet on a Saturday forenoon to enjoy a chat over a cup of tea or coffee. This year we allocated £180, of which £150 was the Guild's contribution to our Church's share of the co-ordinated appeal.

Keep it up, women of Newton Mearns, because the aim of the Woman's Guild is to unite the women of the Church in worship, fellowship and service.

YOUNG WIVES GROUP

President—Mrs Main.
Vice-President—Mrs Mill.
Secretary and Treasurer—Mrs McLean.

The first session of the Young Wives Group has been very successful and several new members have joined the group.

At Christmas we had a party for the children and this was enjoyed almost as much by the parents as the children.

Our grateful thanks go to the Woman's Guild for their willing support and assistance during the session.

2nd MEARNS BROWNIE PACK

The Brownies meet in the Church Hall on Thursday evenings at 6 p.m. for girls for 7-11 years.

Brown Owl—Mrs W. A. Simpson.
Tawny Owls—Miss Mary Jammet.
Miss Irene Morrison.
Miss Maureen Jammet.

Throughout the past year our numbers have increased to 48 Brownies with regular attendance at meetings and great enthusiasm shown in everything we do.

A large number of these Brownies are between the ages of 7-9 and we have therefore concentrated more on games and discussion in sixes rather than work this year.

During the year we have visited Broom Church pantomime; were on parade at our own Church at Armistice; held a Hallowe'en Party and had a competition amongst the sixes in the decoration of their own corners with useful and interesting items for Brownie work and play. This competition was well received and the Brownies worked hard at it. On our last meeting before Christmas the Guide Captain had difficulty in deciding the winner.

I would like to thank Tawny Owls, Miss Mary Jammet and Miss Irene Morrison, and to welcome Miss Maureen Jammet who has joined us to work for her Warrant. Also Pack Leaders, Miss Jill Crossland, Miss Pamela Rankin and Miss Moyra Dinsmor for their great help and support.

Finally on behalf of the Pack, I would like to thank Mr Mackay for his interest and visits to us.

J. O. Simpson.

2nd MEARNS GIRL GUIDES

Over the past year, our activities have been many and varied. Perhaps the highlight of our guiding year was the presentation of the highest Guide Badge obtainable, the Queen's Badge—this was achieved by P.L. Fionna Rait. The Assistant Division Commissioner, Mrs Walker, came to a Parents' Night and presented the award and we are all very proud of Fionna who worked exceedingly hard throughout her time in Guides and well-deserves this badge.

Our Summer Camp in 1966 was held in Ulster—a most enjoyable 12 days were spent and although the weather could have been kinder to us, none-the-less it was an adventure, and we found the local people interesting to meet and very kind and helpful to us. We visited Lorne (Guide International Training Centre), and also Belfast and the Giants Causeway.

Five Patrol Leaders spent a weekend at Drimmie, the new Scottish Guide Adventure House and had two days rather strenuous orienteering and hill-walking courses mapped out for them.

Christmas presents were distributed to some of the older members of the congregation, and we also had a Company night out at the theatre. A geriatric ward in Mearns Kirk Hospital was decorated by the guides and we also went carol-singing in the ward.

Each and every guide plays her part and due credit is given to the many guides who have achieved many proficiency badges throughout the year. We have in the company a poultry-farmer and a dairymaid! The percentage of successes in these badges has once again been very high, as has also been the case in the guide standard of work in company nights. Our attendance is usually very good, and during the year we have welcomed about 12 recruits.

I am personally indebted to Lieutenants Sandra Crossland, Fiona Gillies and Maureen McClure for the hard work they do to enable the company to continue practising the guiding spirit, and I take this opportunity of thanking them for their co-operation and warm friendship throughout the past year.

The thanks of the company are also due to Mr Mackay and to our two visiting elders who have shown much interest in our work and fun, and who have also given us all their support in our ventures.

Guides meet on Thursday evenings at 7.30 p.m. and we shall always be pleased to welcome any newcomers to the company.

Jane C. Clements, Captain.

SPARKS

During the last year we have participated in several activities. In June, we gave a display of a typical meeting. We were grateful to parents and friends, Mr Mackay and elders, who supported our effort. We hope our visitors enjoyed it as much as the boys enjoyed performing.

We began this session on Wednesday, Sept. 7th with a total roll of 19 boys. A Hallowe'en party was held at the end of October, and on December 21st we all enjoyed the fun and games at the Christmas Party.

On Saturday, January 14th, we went on a visit to the Kelvin Hall Circus.

I would like to take this opportunity of thanking Mr Mackay and our elders for their interest in the organisation and also Alison Spears, my assistant, for all her invaluable help.

Any boy between the ages of 5-7 years inclusive will be made very welcome at our meetings on Wednesdays at 6.30-7.30 p.m. in the Church Hall.

A Crossland, Leader.

79th GLASGOW COMPANY BOYS' BRIGADE JUNIOR SECTION

The Junior Section opened for the 1966-67 session early in September when 20 boys enrolled. Since September a number of recruits have joined us, and we now have 30 boys on the roll, which is our highest number in recent years.

This session has been one of change for the Section and this has involved the boys and the officers in much hard work leading up to awards under the new Achievements System. The work took up most of the Section's time until Christmas but time was found for our usual Hallowe'en and Christmas parties which were much enjoyed by the boys and not least of all by the officers.

At the moment we are in the initial stages of preparation for our Display and Prizegiving which will be held at the end of April.

I would like, at this time, to thank Mr K. Cromar who has very kindly answered our call for new officers and who has already proved himself a very valuable addition. I would also like to thank Miss E. Fairlie, Miss M. Shaw, and Mr L. Forbes for their continuing enthusiastic support.

Finally my thanks to our visiting elders for their interest in our work and to Mr Mackay for his never ending support and leadership.

T. Dobson, Lieut.-in-Charge.

79th GLASGOW BOYS' BRIGADE COMPANY

The year 1966 has been very successful.

In January, we started to interest the boys in having a band in the company once more. We recovered some of the original sets of pipes and have now managed to make use of them.

In February, we were fairly quiet with boys sitting proficiency test which continued until March.

In April, we started preparing for our Annual Inspection, which took place during May with our President, Mr J. A. Orr as the Inspecting Officer. Mrs Orr presented the awards, the highest of which was the presentation of the Queen's Badge to Cpl. Lindsay Forbes.

In May we held a "Rag Drive" to raise funds to finance our band and we published our own Company magazine for the first time.

June saw the wayfaring Certificates and our final meeting of the session.

In July, some of our boys went to camp with the 138th Glasgow Company to Benderloch in Argyll.

In September, we restarted and Messrs Hamish Fulton, Robin Todd and Crawford Amos came along to help us out at officer level. Robert Booth accepted the invitation to become a Staff Sergeant. We welcomed 7 boys from the then Life Boys and we also have 3 other boys who came along to join our company.

October was fairly routine as was November. However, this year during "B.B." Week we broke all records to collect the total of £51.

In December, we were entertained to the Junior Brigade party and on 27th December we went to the Ivy Restaurant for High Tea followed by a visit to the Kelvin Hall Circus.

In the New Year we hope to continue our progress made in 1966. We hope in February to parade with the pipe band, and to organise more fund raising ideas.

I would like to thank Messrs Tom Dobson, Hamish Fulton, Robin Todd, Crawford Amos, and Robert Booth for the assistance given in running the Company. Also I would like to thank Mr Mackay, and his session, for their co-operation through the year.

Finally I would like to thank Mr D. Campbell, our Pipe Instructor, and Messrs M. Wyllie and R. Pollock, our Drum Instructors.

A. Watt, Captain.

OBITUARIES

Mr John Henderson, 2 Newtonlea Avenue, died in a Renfrewshire hospital on Thursday, 3rd November, 1966. He was a Chartered Accountant by profession and had gone into partnership in industry a few years ago in East Kilbride. We did not have the privilege of having his services as an office-bearer in our congregation but he had given them in another church. He was possessed of a very alert mind, and had a very kindly nature. Outside of his business his love was for his home, his wife and his family. He had many friends in the district who admired him for the uprightness of his character and the wisdom of his council. To his wife and son we extend the deepest sympathy of the congregation in their great loss.

Mrs J. M. Peden, Hazelwood Avenue, died at her residence on November 11th, 1966. She, and her husband, who has been for many years an honoured elder in our congregation came to us from the Shawlands district where they had been members of the Langside Hill Church. This is a Church that has had a splendid history in the past, and from which we have received many who, have taken their place in our fellowship with great acceptance to all. There is no doubt that the atmosphere in which a person is brought up—be it the home, or the Church—has a lasting influence upon one. It was so with her. She was a woman in whose company one could not be long without realising that she believed in the things of life that really matter. She was not afraid to voice her opinions yet they were never thrust upon one. She brought up the children in the nurture and admiration of the Lord, and they were never in any doubt what she stood for. She supported her husband in his legal profession, and in his work for the Church. A regular attender of the Sanctuary and a loyal member of the Woman's Guild, she leaves behind a gracious heritage, and to her husband and family we would extend to-day the deep sympathy of the congregation.

Mr James Stewart, 3 Rysland Avenue, died on Thursday, December 1st, 1966. He served all through the Great War, 1914-1918 in France. His teaching career which had been interrupted in the service of his country was resumed thereafter, and after serving in various schools in Glasgow, he was appointed headmaster in Hillhead Primary School. This is one of the leading educational centres in the west of the city and no man could have been more qualified for the post. He was endowed with a very alert mind and to his task he brought a conscientiousness that enhanced the reputation of that great school. Perhaps it was as a man that we knew him best. The Psalmist says in one of his songs, "Thy gentleness, O Lord, hath made me great." Combined with the strength of his character there was a compassion and a consideration of others that endeared him to all. He and his family came to live in this district in the early thirties and have been most faithful members for over 30 years. Lesley, his daughter, a doctor at Mearns Kirk Hospital, was during the years of the last war, the captain of the 2nd Mearns Guides. Her work as a resident physician at the hospital has been warmly commended. To his widow and to her, we offer the deepest sympathy of the Church in the passing of one greatly loved.

Mrs Mary Nesbit, 21 Netherplace Road, died in hospital on Thursday, December 1st, 1966. She came from Motherwell to be beside her sister, when the latter married and came to live in this district. Her married life was one of the shortest. I officiated at the ceremony on the Friday and her husband died of a heart attack on the Tuesday. There was something very tragic about it, and yet they had known each other since childhood days, and had wanted to get married, and they finally achieved, in spite of the exigencies of life, their long hoped for desire. She had a great deal of illness in her latter years but she told me one day that she had made up her mind not to talk about her ailments. From that day she was a new woman, and looked out and not in on life. Many in the district will miss her for the gentleness of her nature, and to the Arthur family who watched over her we offer our deepest sympathy.

Mr James McLaren, 83 Fruin Court, died on Sunday, 8th January, 1967. He was the founder President of the Queen's Park Rotary Club. The large gathering at his funeral in the Linn Crematorium was evidence of the high esteem in which he was held. He was associated for most of his life with Calor Gas (Dist.) Ltd., and he served it faithfully for many years. His business and Rotary duties probably made it difficult for him to take office in the Church, and it was through their daughter Morag that we came to know the family in this respect. She has taken a great interest in the youth of the congregation and taught in the Beginners Class. He suffered considerable pain and discomfort in the last two years but bore it with great fortitude. He was a delightful companion and engaging conversationalist. To his wife, his daughter and son-in-law, his brother, and all his friends we offer the deep sympathy of the church.

Mrs Potts, Bolfrax, Larchfield Avenue, died on Friday, 13th January, 1967. One of the last things she did was to hand to me a cheque to give to some organisation or person in the church which or whom it might help. There is more kindness done in life that one ever hears about, and she was one who was always watching to do such things. She was the last of her generation—a member of the Wallace family of John Wallace (Sausage Makers) Ltd. She and her husband spent most of their married life in England. They were both interested in orchestral music, and went once a fortnight to hear the leading musicians of the day. They suffered a very great loss in the death of their son from polio on his farm at Port William. It was at this time that they came to this district to be amongst their kith and kin where they had been for the past 6 years. She was a woman of a strong personality, yet withal it was mingled with a gentleness of touch that endeared her to all. She remained to the end a figure that towered over all, triumphant over the sorrows of life. To her husband, her daughter-in-law, her grandchildren and all her kith and kin, we extend the deep sympathy of the congregation.

Mrs Brandie, 59 Netherplace Crescent, died in hospital on Monday, 16th January, 1967. She had been ill for some months, and while she rallied from time to time, she did not have the strength to overcome her weakness. She was a woman of a very nice personality, a diligent housewife, and one who always greeted you with a smile. Her husband was well known in the district as a member of the local constabulary, and highly respected by all. She was a good neighbour and those who lived beside her would testify to her kind heartedness. She was a member of the Woman's Guild and a faithful attender. We know what a loss her death will be to her husband, and to him and the members of the family, one of them in Canada, we offer our deepest sympathy.

Mrs Renfrew, late of Little Greenlaw, died in a nursing home on Sunday, 29th January, 1967. Mearns as it is known to-day will not know a family that used to bulk largely in the annals of the parish. She was one of 5 children that were born to Mr and Mrs Harvie in Little Greenlaw Farm. When it became too small they moved to Waterside Farm, and when I came to be minister here in 1931, there lived there Mr Robert and Miss Jessie Harvie. In 1937, Mrs Renfrew, their sister who had gone to live on a farm in Wales, returned on the death of her husband to stay with her sister again at Waterside. There they remained for many years (and the Sunday School trip often was held there), until Little Greenlaw fell vacant and her nephew Mr John Lambie persuaded them to buy it. Thus they both returned to the house in which they were born. She stayed on alone after her sister died until about a year ago when she went into the Elmtree Nursing Home. She had a very bright personality and was very contented by nature. She had her own room and sat in her armchair reading the paper in the morning, and receiving her visitors in the afternoon. She retained all her faculties to the end, and was interested in all that went on in the parish and in the Church. I remember she had a cat on the farm called Hassan, and he received all her attention. To all her nephews and nieces, and in particular to Mr and Mrs John Lambie who remained her constant companions, we offer our deep sympathy.
