THE CHOIR

New members are needed in the Choir, and I appeal to all who can help to come forward. Only with an enlarged number can we render some of the Church music that we wish to include in the praise of the Sanctuary. It may be that you are unable to come to the practice during the week and so are reluctant to come in on the Sunday. I would be pleased if you would come and have a talk with me after a Church Service.

J. A. Littlejohn.

THE BADMINTON CLUB

The Badminton Club resumed on 10th September. The Club have entered mixed doubles teams in both the Langside and East Kilbride leagues, and a team in the Gents' League. Anyone interested in joining the Club is invited to come to the hall any Tuesday or Wednesday evening.

It is hoped to restart the Junior Section later in the season.

Elspeth M. Simpson.

The session is now in full swing, and we are delighted to see some new faces amongst us. Our Annual Coffee Morning is being held on Saturday, 7th December. Donations for the Stalls, Cake and Candy, Soft Goods, etc., will be gratefully accepted.

Music editions are now in; available to all who have spoken to me concerning them. The re-print price is now £1.80. Words only will be available as soon as possible. Please come and look at the bookstall. It is for you and all queries and suggestions in the Lord will be most welcome.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Brown, 71 Hazelwood Avenue died on Tuesday, 3rd September, 1974. She took ill on holiday abroad, but through the kindness of friends was able to make her way home, but died shortly after her arrival. She had been resident in the district for many years, and a faithful attender of the Church. Attractive in personality, she was a great favourite in company, and had many friends in the district. To her son and daughter-in-law we extend our deepest sympathy.

Mrs. Nora Ford, 3 Broomvale Drive died on 23rd October, 1974. It is not long since her husband died and she had been confined to bed since then. At the same time it would be true to say that she was very ill before he died. She had great determination of will and this it was that enabled her to look after him till he died. Her busy life made great demands on her, but she never flinched from her task. She had a good business head and with the aid of her husband built up a flourishing trade in her newsagent shop. She took time for relaxation and her life was a full one and a happy one. To her sons and daughters-in-law and grandchildren we offer our deep sympathy.
